

ENGLISH ESSAY WRITING COMPARE AND CONTRAST

You might compare and contrast two different kinds of pets, or two novels from the same historical time period. Maybe you're thinking that writing an essay about .

What do they describe or depict? The organizing strategy that you choose will depend on, as always, your audience and your purpose. A point by point structure is clearer and more explicit whereas the block structure is easier to write. That will be your main argument. Step 7 - Craft Your Essay with Strong Transitional Words Transitional words give your essay a nice flow from one statement to the next. How old are they? Step 6 - Fill in Supporting Evidence As you begin to write your essay, back up your assertions with evidence from research, reading, or personal experience. This part is really up to you. The diagram is then used to filter the information. Once you have decided on a topic, introduce it with an engaging opening paragraph. Compare and Contrast Outline. What are they like? What kind of evidence is usually offered for them? Suppose that you are writing a paper comparing two novels. Thus, if you use the subject-by-subject form, you will probably want to have a very strong, analytical thesis and at least one body paragraph that ties all of your different points together. If possible, get a friend to cast a fresh pair of eyes on it to find mistakes you might have missed. Is that really the most significant of all the elements on your list? Don't just talk about the painters' different backgrounds. You could write two paragraphs about qualities that are common to women they tend to be more compassionate, they are good multitaskers along with some that they share with men they are capable of sacrificing self for the good of others. This will be approximately four or more paragraphs focusing on key similarities and key differences, allowing for one paragraph for each point made. This will make it easier to structure a good argument. With regard to other cultural places like restaurants, pubs, and bars, both cities are very comparable. A compare and contrast essay therefore looks at the similarities of two or more objects, and the differences. The Bible vs. If you miss any words to finish your essay, a literature review is a brilliant way to reach the necessary word count. In these informative essays , statistical evidence is helpful. A compare and contrast essay is a type of essay which is used to explore both the similarities and the differences between two subjects by comparing and contrasting them against each other. Android vs. Both cities have thriving theater districts, but again, London wins this comparison, too, both in quantity and quality of theater choices. Selecting the proper topics might take a while if you don't have a list of sample topics in front of you. It is advised to start and end with the same subject for each point to maintain consistency. Next you must decide which of them are interesting, important, and relevant enough to be included in your paper. What themes do they address? Follow these steps, and you will be well on your way to writing a compare-and-contrast essay that cannot fail to impress your reading audience. You can also go point by point throughout the essay. The purpose of writing a comparison or contrast essay is not to state the obvious but rather to illuminate subtle differences or unexpected similarities between two subjects. Just remember the golden rule for these types of essays. This way, it's not just your personal perceptions but factual evidence. London has a much richer past than Washington, DC, and consequently has a lot more material to pull from when arranging its collections. Here are some general questions about different types of things you might have to compare. Make sure to use comparison and contrast phrases to cue the reader to the ways in which you are analyzing the relationship between the subjects. The best way to decide on two good compare and contrast topics to analyze is to brainstorm and write down possible versions on a blank paper. Ask the readers what the art world would look like without the influence of these two painters or invite them to study the painters' work in finer detail. You might conclude that music is more personal than poetry but your best friend, a Literature major, might disagree wholeheartedly. Perhaps the two painters came from different backgrounds but reached similar levels of success.